A PUBLICATION OF BELMONT VILLAGE FOR RESIDENTS, STAFF, FAMILY AND FRIENDS

OCTOBER 2020

Clint Strickland, Executive Director

to celebrate a couple of our residents' contributions to WWII. Mike Boston of the Lakeway Heritage Society dropped off certificates of appreciation to Mr. Tom Broyles & Mrs. Jean Lockhart. They were both very honored to be appreciated in such a way.

We are happy to see visitors around the building and excited for you to physically reconnect with your loved ones.

GREETINGS ...

Residents, friends and families!

First, I'd like to thank every single resident and family member of Belmont Village Lakeway. This has been a long, exhausting and frustrating road but we have also celebrated many large and small victories along the way.

Last month, we were able to celebrate our 2 Year Anniversary with a Tropical Beach themed party. The weather was perfect, the food was amazing and the residents had a blast! The only thing missing was our wonderful family members. We hope to be able to celebrate with you all soon.

We also had the opportunity

Tom Broyles, WWII Veteran

Jean Lockhart, wife of WWII Veteran
